

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

KANGAROOKARE operates a childcare directory service for families and childcare providers.

The names of the childcare providers are provided to families by request. KANGAROOKARE does not investigate the childcare providers. The parents or guardian has the responsibility for ensuring that the childcare arrangements and the childcare provider ultimately chosen is suitable for the family's needs. All parents or guardians should do their own due diligence in investigating the childcare provider.

In consideration of using the childcare directory service of KANGAROOKARE, the family expressly agrees to assume any and all risks involved in the selection of the childcare provider or facility and to release KANGAROOKARE, its employees or agents, from any and all liability for negligence or breach of duty of care arising in connection with the directory services provided, whether arising in contract or negligence, or in respect of the negligence, actions or omissions of any childcare provider or occupiers liability whatsoever, and whether arising in connection with the directory services provided, and the parent or guardian shall save KANGAROOKARE harmless and indemnify KANGAROOKARE from any or all actions, claims, proceedings, demands, whatsoever arising out of or in any way related to the directory service or liability for the actions or omissions of any childcare provider or of any facility.
